

NABINA SHRESTHA, MANAGER

Ms. Shrestha grew up in Kathmandu, Nepal before coming to the United States at the urging of her business owner father to pursue her post-secondary education. Nabina chose to attend Truman State University where she completed her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Accounting and went on to achieve a Master's degree in Accountancy. As a person who grew up globally, she prefers to think locally applying her personal philosophy "In a world where you can be anything, be kind."

Nabina began her career with OFWF in February 2014. She has since helped prepare numerous individuals with their tax returns, ranging from simple to complex. She specializes in preparing small to mid-sized business income tax returns and financial statement audits for small businesses. Nabina is also heavily involved in Employee Benefits Plans audit during the year. Her passion for training new hires and helping them adjust to their positions is evident in her work.

In her personal time she loves to spend time with her family. She also enjoys trying new recipes with her husband.
